

ACCOMMODATION GUIDE

There are a number of rental properties available in the areas surrounding the Law School. Please email lawschool@lawsociety.ie for a list of available accommodation.

Other useful websites include:

<http://www.daft.ie/student-accommodation/law-society-of-ireland-education-centre-dublin>
www.collegecribs.ie
www.daft.ie
<http://ie.easyroommate.com/>
www.myhome.ie
www.property.ie
www.myhometolet.ie
www.let.ie
www.Hostingpower.ie (please note this company charges a fee for its services)
www.spotahome.com (please note this company charges a fee for its services)
www.homestaybooking.com

Another option particularly suitable for short term or part week (i.e. Monday to Friday) accommodation listings is digs. A list of digs accommodation available in the local area can be found on the DCU Students Union website under the Blogs Section:

<http://dcusu.ie/blog>

A sample Digs License Agreement is also available on the DCU Students Union website under Resources: <http://dcusu.ie/resources>

There is also some purpose built student residences in the locality. Please note that these are privately managed and can be expensive. Also most of them only offer contracts for 40 weeks (September to May/June or 51 weeks (September to August).

<http://www.chubbproperties.com/JBs-Student-Campus.html>
<http://www.shanowensquare.com/>
<http://www.shanowenhall.com/>
<http://www.schoolhousecourt.com/>
<http://www.gatewaystudentvillage.ie/>
<http://www.broadstoneaccommodation.com>
<http://www.homestay.com/>
<http://www.hazelwood.ie> and;
<http://www.harringtonpropertymanagement.com>

When searching for accommodation areas close to the Law School include:

Dublin 5: Artane, Killester, Raheny, Donnycarney
Dublin 7: Phibsboro
Dublin 9: Beaumont, Santry, Drumcondra
Dublin 11: Glasnevin, Finglas

While searching, short term accommodation can be found at:

www.airbnb.ie/s/Dublin--Ireland

Disclaimer

The Law Society accepts no responsibility for any information contained in this list. Trainees are advised to vet the quality of the property and check the contract before signing. The Law Society accepts no risk or responsibility arising from any contract entered into from information on this accommodation list. Trainees do so entirely at their own risk.