Aim and Objectives

The aim and objectives of the day and half are to provide an opportunity for practitioners to update their knowledge in areas of law of essential relevance to most in general practice.

In Part I on 13 June this is an afternoon of Management and Regulation. The course will include an opportunity for practitioners to update their knowledge in areas of management, professional development and regulation, including anti-money laundering, accounting and GDPR subject access requests. The aim is to offer practitioners a practical update in relevant areas from experienced practitioners and speakers.

In Part II on 14 June as well as updates on relevant areas of law which include conveyancing, PRAI updates and will and trust drafting there will also be an opportunity to network with other practitioners.

A practitioner who attends this day and half course will complete 10 CPD hours which will include 2 Management & Professional Development Skills, 2 Regulatory Matters (including 1 accounting and AML compliance) and 6 General CPD hours.
