Aims and Objectives

Following on from the success of previous wellbeing summits we are pleased to announce another summit for 2023.

This year the Summit will focus on building community and belonging in the legal profession. We will bring together expert speakers who will explore areas including: the role of leadership in building community and creating a more human legal profession where people can feel they belong and bring their true selves to work, peer support programmes, diversity and inclusion and access to justice.

Chairpersons, Speakers, and Panellists include:

Noeline Blackwell, Solicitor and CEO of Dublin Rape Crisis Centre
Maeve Delargy, OUTlaw Network, Solicitor Philip Lee Solicitors Dublin
Peggy Hughes, disAbility Legal Network, Partner Mason Hayes & Curran Dublin
Gary Lee, Solicitor Office of the General Solicitor for Minors and Wards of Court
Sonia McEntee, Balint Facilitator, Member Law Society Professional Wellbeing Steering Group, Principal Sonia McEntee Solicitors Dublin and Cavan
Antoinette Moriarty, Psychotherapist, Head of Law Society Psychological Services
